	Parishioner	"I just wanted to mention the trees on the far side of Horse pond, almost opposite the village hall. They are growing further and further into the middle, darkening the area in the pond even more and thereby, we observed that the Moorhen and duck that used to be in residence there, are less and less likely to settle now as it is so overgrown, I know it was dredged some time ago, when they discovered the till from the Cricketers that had been dumped in there after the armed robbery, but that is indeed some time back now, and we feel it is rather crying out for some further attention." Responded that it would be added as an agenda item.
